

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all acts, or parts of acts, not Repeal. inconsistent with this act are reserved, and all acts and parts of acts which are repugnant thereto, are repealed, abrogated and annulled by this act.

CHAPTER 214.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, relative to Licenses, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, chapter one hundred and forty-eight.

See original law, ante page 814.

Other laws are, 1827, ch. 117; 1828, ch. 85, 95; 1829, ch. 217; 1830, ch. 184; 1831, ch. 262, 298, 323.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, no permit shall be granted by any judge of the county courts, or other person, to ordinary keepers or retailers of spirituous liquors. Permits not to be granted.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the county clerks shall in the recess of court, grant licenses to ordinary keepers, on their entering into a recognizance, with two securities, before a justice of the peace, that they will comply with the provision of the several laws of this state, relative to ordinary keepers. Clerks of counties may grant licenses.

See 1827, ch. 117, sec. 4.

SEC. 3. By 1827, ch. 117, licenses for ordinaries are to terminate on the first day of May, annually.

SEC. 4. Merged in 1828, ch. 85, sec. 6.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall extend to repeal an act passed this session, relating to the proprietors and occupants of the shad and herring fisheries on the Potomac, from the first of April, to the twentieth day of May. Fisheries exempt.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the occupants of established shad and herring fisheries on all the rivers at the head of the Chesapeake bay shall be entitled to the same privileges that are granted to the fisheries on the Potomac. Privilege to fisheries at head of the bay.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with, or repugnant to the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Repeal.

CHAPTER 221.

A further SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act relating to Lotteries.

See original act, 1817, ch. 154, ante page 673.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of lotteries, to deposit all moneys, notes, bills, bonds, and other securities received by them in their public character as commissioners of lotteries, in such bank as the governor and council shall annually approve, and that all payments to individuals, or to the treasurer of the western shore, shall be made by checks drawn by the said commissioners in their official character as such, and a return Deposites and checks regulated.